	01.11.2003 Shri Ajit Singh, counsel for the petitioner. Shri Ranbir Singh Marhas, Govt. Advocate for the State/respondents 1 to 4. Heard both the counsel. By this writ petition under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India, the petitioner seeks to challenge his transfer order dated 06.10.2003 by which he has been transferred from Sahaspur Lohara to Jagargunda, Sukma Division, District: Jagdalpur. The petitioner was working as Forest Ranger at Fingeshwar, East Raipur Division and vide order dated 19.11.2001 he was transferred to Kutumsar, District: Jagdalpur and from there vide order dated 08.04.2003 he was transferred to Sahaspur Lohara, Kawardha Division and again within a period of six months he was transferred from Sahaspur Lohara to Jagargunda, Sukma Division, District Jagdalpur, within a short span of time without any reason and without any administrative exigency. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been transferred without any reason and it is a case of frequent transfer because within a period of two years, he is transferred three times. Therefore, he should be allowed to make a representation to raise all his grievance before respondent No.1, for which the learned Govt. Advocate has no objection.

Having heard the learned counsel for the parties and having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, I am of the opinion that it is just and reasonable to allow the petitioner to make a representation to respondent No.1. Accordingly, the petitioner is allowed to make a representation to respondent No.1 within ten days from today raising all his grievances and in turn, respondent No.1 shall decide the representation within thirty days from the date of receipt of the representation, in an objective manner with a reasoned order. Till then, the petitioner shall not be relieved if he has not already been relieved.

With the above observations and directions the petition stands disposed of.

Consequently, M.(W.)P.No.2923/2003 and I.A.No.9436/2003 also stand disposed of.

Parties are entitled for certified copy of this order.
